Dear Sir:-

The American Psychological Association has appointed a committee, of which I am chairman, to consider possible changes in its method of electing officers.

For the guidance of our committee will you kindly tell me what method is pursued in The American Numismatic Society and whether it is completely satisfactory?

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir:-

I have just received your letter of November 14th, and I am sending, under separate cover, a copy of the Constitution and By-Laws of this Society, which contains information regarding the way officers of the Society are selected

We elect three members of the Council each year to serve for a term of five years. The election is by ballot, and the nominations are from the floor. As you will see by the Constitution the officers are elected by the Council, and the committees are appointed by the Governors. We have employed these methods for several years, and there has been no complaint as far as I am aware.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
